

BLOOD FLOWS IN CHICAGO

Crisis Seems to be at Hand in Big Labor Struggle--Riots in Heart of City Frequent

(Scripps-Mc Rae Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, May 3.—By all calculations the teamsters' strike should reach a climax today. A renewal of the violence is expected with a strong possibility that state troops will be called into action, which step will be the beginning of the end. Five hundred additional policemen went on strike duty this morning. Employers will attempt to send out six hundred wagons under police guard today instead of eighteen hundred as planned. The police report that many negro strike breakers refuse to go to work today or to leave the barns where they are housed. They say they were not brought here to fight the white men and will not do it for $2.50 per day.

Clash With Negroes.

Trouble began early. At Forty-sixth street a gang of negro strike-breakers who arrived from the south at 6 o'clock encountered an angry crowd of union sympathizers. In the clash which followed twelve were severely injured.

Black Student May Die.

Edward Boswell, a colored student at the college of physicians and surgeons, was mistaken for a strike breaker at Twenty-sixth street and Stewart avenue, and was so badly beaten that he may die.

Strike Breaker Frank Curry, the man with the "iron nerve," has been knocked out. He didn't appear as leader of the non-union forces this morning. It is reported he will probably lose an eye as a result of an encounter with a union teamster yesterday. He also has a severe cut on the head.

All express companies put out wagons this morning under strong guard. Twelve large downtown office buildings are deprived of coal by the strike. Drivers of the Crerar Clinch Coal company struck this morning.

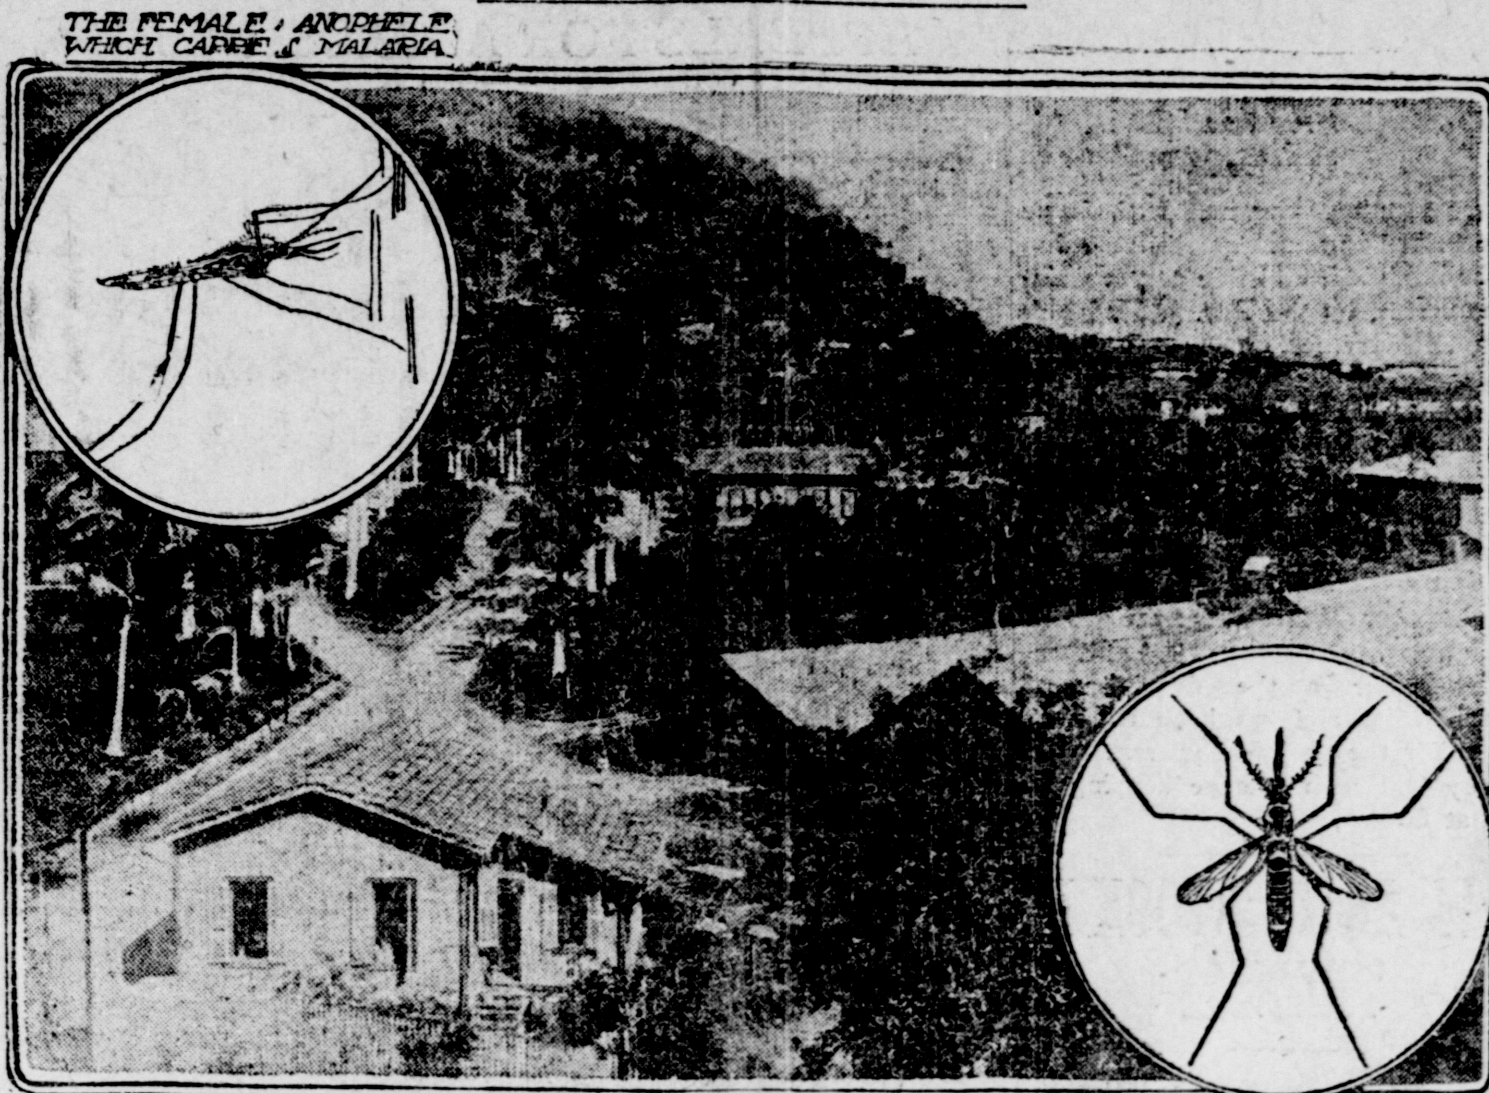

Rioting Injures Many.

Riots attending the progress of a caravan of wagons through the center of the city at 11 o'clock resulted in the serious injury of three men. Several arrests were made. Four men were arrested in a riot at Washington and Wabash streets following an attack on the wagons of the Daniels Coal company. Two men were injured. Several shots were fired.

Obstructing the Street.

Michael Hogan, a union teamster, was arrested at noon for obstructing the street in front of a States Express wagon carrying government money to the subtreasury. This is the first arrest under the federal injunction.

ESCAPED MANIAC CAPTURED ON STREETS BY POLICE

Carl Beman, From Rochester Asylum Carried Pounded Glass for Medicine

Carl Beman, patient No. "B2" of the Rochester state hospital for the insane, is in La Crosse, sojourning at the county jail.

Beman arrived this morning and was picked up on the north side at about eleven o'clock by Detective Taylor, who noticed that he was acting strangely and roaming the streets without any apparent destination.

When he was searched at the north side police station his pockets were found to be full of pounded glass.

"What do you use this for?" asked Mr. Taylor.

"Oh, that stuff's my medicine. I get sick once in a while and I have to take it. Its pretty good medicine."

"Where do you come from?" asked the officer.

"Oh, lots of places." The madman then explained to the astonished officers that he came from about a dozen different cities, some of them in Europe.

"Were you ever at Rochester?"

"Oh I know where Rochester is. It isn't a very nice town. That's where the hospital is where they keep all of the crazy people."

"Who went with you from Rochester?"

"Oh, that other fellow went with me to Hastings."

Beman claimed that he had a companion, and it is thought that the two must have escaped from the asylum together several days ago. The man wore under clothing bearing the Rochester mark, with the large letters "B 2" on the neck band.

The sheriff was notified of his arrest this noon and the insane man was taken to the county jail where he will be held pending the arrival of officers from the asylum.

THIS PAGE IS DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE NORTH SIDE

A DEFT STRANGER
STEALS NORTHSIDERS' WATCH

Mr. Johnson, a well known plasterer, of 1400 Berlin street, had his watch stolen from his vest pocket yesterday afternoon and as yet it has not been returned, and probably never will.

Mr. Johnson was engaged in plastering a house in the 1600 block on Loomis street and had hung his coat and vest on the wall of one of the rooms.

While plastering, a young man came in and talked with him for a time. Mr. Johnson's plaster soon ran out and he went out to get another pail of it, the young man accompanying him to the door, and when he came back the man was standing in the door just where he had left him, but he soon left.

Mr. Johnson was timing himself as to how fast the work was being done. Mr. Johnson went to see the time and found his pocket empty.

He went to look for the confidential stranger but he had also disappeared.

He told Mr. Johnson that he was looking for work and that he had been working with a bridge crew in Dubuque.

As yet the police have not located him.

FALSE ALARM FIEND
AGAIN BUSY ON NORTH SIDE

Another mysterious fire alarm was turned in last evening from box No. 421.

This is the third false alarm that has been turned in from this box within the last two weeks and it seems as if the glass was broken by magic and the alarm turned in by some invisible person. When the department arrives at the box there is never anyone near.

The sand on the road to this box is very deep and it is a very hard run for the company to make. It also makes a useless run for the chief to the north side.

TOLSTOI TILLING THE SOIL

COUNT TOLSTOI PUTTING HIS PRECEPTS INTO PRACTICE.

(New York Herald Special.)

Count Tolstoy, one of the most picturesque of modern apostles, is himself the best example of how good it is for brain workers to go back to the land. He early decided that as he preached so must he act, and this is why he has followed the plough and made himself conversant with all the work done by the average peasant in the neighborhood of his home. Tolstoy believes that every man should be able to keep himself with the help of manual labor. He is for equality in its broadest sense, and, though no writer living has given more moving pictures of that class in Russia from which is drawn the domestic servant, he cannot bear to be waited on and has taught all his children to do housework and accomplish every simple household task.

LAW AS TO STOCK IN TRANSIT

Washington, May 3.—The attorney general has rendered an opinion sustaining Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, in his contention that the law requiring stock in transit to be unloaded, fed and watered at intervals not greater than twenty-eight hours, applies to terminal railway companies as well as to through lines.

The opinion was asked in connection with the application to be relieved from the operation of the law by the Terminal Railroad association, of St. Louis. The secretary says that his efforts to enforce the twenty-eight-hour law has resulted in 400 violations of the law being reported within the past three months.

ACCUSED BY BOWEN

MR. FRANCIS B. BOWEN.

(New York Herald Special.) WASHINGTON, May 2.—Acting for President Roosevelt, Secretary Taft has sent to Assistant Secretary of State Loomis a copy of the charges made against the latter by H. W. Bowen, the American Minister at Caracas, Venezuela. Mr. Loomis is requested to submit an answer. This shows that the whole affair is now officially before the administration.

Secretary Taft has informed president Roosevelt by telegraph of the whole affair. There is a strong probability that Mr. Bowen, whose relations with the Venezuelan government are strained, will be called to Washington to substantiate the charges if he can. President Roosevelt will decide this. From now on the president will be the judge.

Mr. Loomis has given out a statement denying the charges in detail.

President Roosevelt has been advised of the developments of this case and announcement comes from Colorado that he will return to the East one week earlier than he had planned.

IMMORTALITY OR NO PAY

Benton Harbor, Mich., May 3.—Benjamin and Mary, the Israelite leaders here, have evoked a new idea in their House of David colony. Immortality is the guarantee to every new member or you get your money back. The new plan bids fair to be as popular as the trading stamp idea in the big department stores. Mrs. Harriet DeVan formerly lived in Grand Rapids with an only son, and in quest of a physical immortality cast her lot with the long-haired people. But, alas, she fell prey to the same ills of humanity outside the flock and died after a short illness with pneumonia. The son went to Benjamin and said:

"Benjamin, my mother failed to be rewarded with the promised everlasting life."

"Then, my boy, you will get the money back," was the reply. "For here in Israel we stand back of all our transactions." So it has come to pass that a new trade policy has gone into effect at the House of David and Ben will probably advertise in the future: "We guarantee life eternal or your money back."

Express Companies
Call for Assistance
From U. S. Court

Chicago, April 3.—An injunction based on the interstate commerce act has been issued by Judge Kohlsaat on the application of the express companies. It enjoins all strikers or others from interfering in any way with the transaction of business by the said express companies. This was probably the most important happening in strike circles in the city. Of excitement there was an abundance, and of rioting an ample sufficiency. In view of this latter fact, and the utter inability of the police to protect the "struck" firms in their right to conduct their business the mayor authorized Chief O'Neill to demand from the civil service commission 1,000 men police for duty during the strike; to call in all police for strike duty, leaving only the desk sergeants and lockup-keepers for duty at the stations.

Demands of the Employers' Teaming Co.

The Employers' Teaming company has 2,000 teams manned with drivers, and demands that these teams be protected in their right to traverse the streets, and this will require a large number of policemen. The Employers' Teaming company is tired of making up caravans, and demands that its wagons, singly or otherwise shall have the same freedom of the streets as the most insignificant team whose driver wears a union button. The mayor's proclamation, issued last Saturday was posted everywhere, and of this the mayor said: "To one thing I desire to direct public attention—that is the duty of the disinterested citizen to go along about his business. There will be no trouble tomorrow morning if the public heeds my proclamation."

Curry Says He Will Shoot.

A notable feature of anti-strike operations is the presence of Frank Curry, the "strike-breaker," in the thick of the fray. He was a mark for many a missile, and whenever he saw where it came from he sent a bullet in return. "I'll shoot at any one who hits me while in the performance of my work," said Curry. Lewis Eisenman, George Clark (colored) and James Harvey, three of Curry's strike-breakers, who were with him on the expedition after the missing wagon, were badly injured by flying missiles.

Montgomery Ward Man Slugged.

A. G. Utley, floor manager for Montgomery Ward & Co., who distinguished himself at the outbreak of the teamsters' strike by driving an abandoned wagon loaded with goods for Montgomery Ward & Co. to the store at Madison street and Michigan avenue, was assaulted by three men. While passing a vacant lot three men attacked him. Utley was knocked to the ground several times. Taking a "billy" from his pocket, Utley protected himself. He struck one of the men a blow on the head and he fell to the sidewalk unconscious. Fearing he had permanently injured or had killed the man, Utley sent in a call to a police station for an ambulance. When the police ambulance arrived the injured man had disappeared.

EMPLOYERS TACKLE TRANSFER MEN

Say They Should Either Fish or Cut Hair in This Row.

Five transfer and teaming companies, said to do the greater part of the railway freight hauling in Chicago, are holding firm positions on the fence in this fight. They will not send their teams to "struck" houses unless the union will permit. They will start the loads, but if the pickets stop the drivers the latter have orders to drive back to the barns. These transfer companies were informed by the Employers' association they must either deliver freight to the boycotted stores or lose a large part of their business. To deliver goods as demanded would cause a strike of the drivers. The five teaming companies are: Arthur Dixon Transfer company, Joseph Stockton company, W. P. Read Transportation company, Christopher M. Lynch and Stephen T. Clarke.

HOST GOES EAST ON EQUITABLE CASE

BY ROBT. E. KNOFF.
(Special Tribune Dispatch.)

MADISON, Wis., May 3.—Insurance Commissioner Zeno M. Host left for New York last night to attend an important interstate conference of commissioners of insurance, at which the matter of the disruption among the officers of the Equitable Life Assurance society will be discussed and it is possible that concerted action will be taken to secure an interstate joint examination of the affairs and management of the big company, with the purpose of protecting the policyholders of the several states participating in the examination. Commissioner Host some time ago was corresponded with by officials in New York, asking him if he would undertake to conduct an examination of the Equitable, and while he did not absolutely refuse, he made the suggestion that the most effective and satisfactory plan would be to invite a number of heads of state insurance departments to participate in the proposed examination. He suggested that such an examination would be more thorough and reliable than one man could conduct and that if done by a number of states the public would have the utmost confidence in the work and thus it would be of the most benefit to the company, in which the confidence of the public is badly shaken by the present bitter controversy among the officers. Among those who will be at the conference, which takes place at the Hoffman house in New York tomorrow evening, are Henry R. Previtt, insurance commissioner of Kentucky; Reau E. Fol, insurance commissioner of Tennessee; and a brother of Governor Folk of Missouri, and Frederick L. Cutting, insurance commissioner of Massachusetts.

THUGS RAID A VILLAGE

Oneonta, N. Y., May 3.—A band of masked robbers rode into the village of Gilbertsville, about eighteen miles from here, blew open the modern and supposedly burglar-proof safe in the private bank of E. C. Brewer, and made good their escape with booty estimated at between $5,000 and $10,000.

When the startled villagers were awakened by the muffled roar of the explosion, and had been halted by the pistol fire of the retreating bandits, they found that the robbers had completely isolated Gilbertsville from the outside world by cutting all the telephone and telegraph wires. Efforts to communicate with neighboring towns were futile, and when the village folk finally started in pursuit, the robbers had gained a lead which could not be overcome.

Ends the Case in Wisconsin.
Madison, Wis., May 3.—The state supreme court has denied a rehearing in the case of State Insurance Commissioner Host against the Equitable Life Assurance society. Host sought some time ago to compel the Equitable to distribute several millions of its surplus funds among its policy holders in Wisconsin and the court decided adversely. The denial of a rehearing ends the case in Wisconsin.

Among the most delightful places in the city to spend an evening on a sultry summer day is the Bijou vaudeville theatre.

Two large electric fans are constantly whirling in cool fresh air during the performances and the theatre is thus always cool and inviting no matter how warm the weather.

The show this week is one well worth seeing and on a warm evening there will be nothing more pleasing than to occupy a seat in this pretty little amusement house.

Dead of Drinking Wood Alcohol.
Pawhuska, O. T., May 3.—Three men died here from the effects of wood alcohol they had drunk. Two of the men were employees of the Midland Valley railroad, while the third was "Weston" Cornington, a resident of this town. One or two more are ill but probably will recover.

Legislation for Wisconsin.
Madison, Wis., May 3.—The Wisconsin assembly killed a bill removing the common law disability of married women on account of coverture. A bill prohibiting discrimination in charges by telephone companies in cities of the same size was passed.

SYMPATHETIC EXPRESS DRIVERS' STRIKE PLANNED

A sympathetic strike among the express drivers union of the northwest may close up every express office in this section of the country in the course of a few days.

Although local members of the union are very close mouthed about the plan, it is learned today that union organizers are visiting every express office in this part of the country adding hundreds of new members daily.

The purpose of reorganization of the union is the forming of an immense sympathetic strike which will cripple the express companies at Chicago and force them to accede to the demands of the union.

The union agitators who are in the city now say that they will then ask the companies for a raise of ten dollars per month per man and the companies will be forced to accede to their demands. In case the demand is refused, the employees will tie up the business of the companies in such a manner that it will be impossible to place new men.

La Crosse is one of the doubtful cities, because the express drivers union was broken here some six months ago by the United States Express company, and all of the local companies at that time forced their employees to sign an agreement not to join a labor organization again.

on this account the organizers set

La Crosse aside till last week and are here now and called a meeting of drivers last evening, but only succeeded in getting six adherents out of twenty-four.

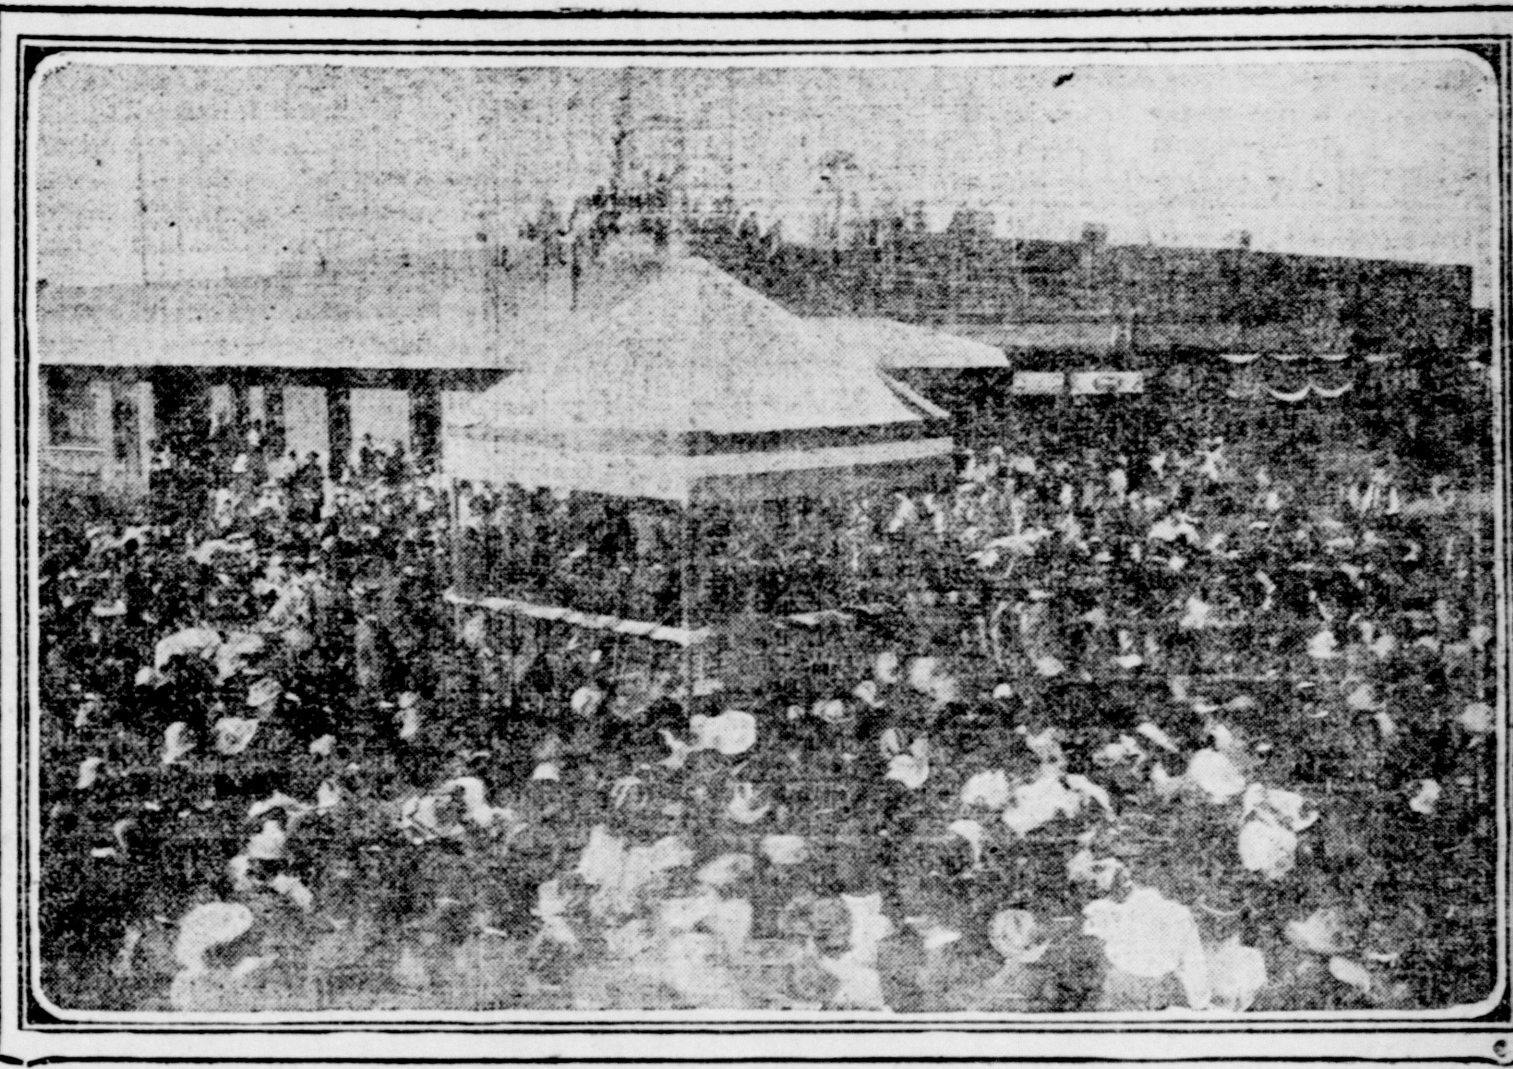

It is said that practically all of the employees of the express companies in this section of the country stand ready to call the strike on at a moment's notice.

The express company officials have discovered the conditions which exist among the men, and one of the employees said today that they have been threatened with instant dismissal from the company in case they join the new union, or attend any of its meetings.

The officials of the different companies refuse to make statements concerning the situation. A representative of the American Express company, from Chicago, visited La Crosse secretly yesterday to learn the extent of the trouble.

COLLEGE GIRL CLIMBS TREE

Oxford, O., May 3.—Torn dresses and limping girls were noticeable at Oxford college as a result of the seniors' annual May day walk around, which ended in a tag rush with the junior class. At 3 a. m. the seniors were abroad, and after their festivities they swung their colors to the highest tree on the college lawn, their ambition being to float them higher than any member of the junior class would dare to go.

But they had not reckoned right, for Miss Carrie Moore, of Fremont, O., braved the dizzy height after a fierce struggle, and unfurled the gold and black of the junior class to the topmost branch. This was the master stroke, and was a height which no sedate female could negotiate. Miss Moore is the heroine of the day.

MR. HOST'S ADMINISTRATION.

A forecast of the annual report of State Insurance Commissioner Zeno M. Host regarding fire insurance in this state shows that Mr. Host regards the mutual fire insurance companies organized under the laws of the state to be of particular benefit. He shows that they furnish reliable insurance at practically cost to the companies, reducing the premiums about 50 per cent. It has been the policy of the present commissioner to encourage and foster these institutions.

There can be no question as to the correctness of Mr. Host's views on this subject. These companies are always favored in rural communities, because they have quite uniformly furnished indemnity against loss at approximately the figure necessary to pay losses and continue the business only. In fostering these companies the state insurance department is putting money in the pockets of property owners in the exact proportion of the saving between premiums charged for maintenance alone and premiums charged to net a profit to the insurer.

But it is in the matter of life insurance rather than fire insurance that Mr. Host has earned his spurs. In his notable battle with the Equitable, though defeated, he had the honor of taking steps that foreshadowed the present crisis in the affairs of that apparently much debauched concern. A technical point, the construction of an abstruse legal dictum, defeated Mr. Host. But no court will ever be able to wipe out the impression that has been made regarding the abused corporation that is in the throes of as nasty a domestic squabble as ever furnished red-ink leads to the spicy dailies. Host, remember, spoke out even before the redoubtable Thomas W. Lawson. And the services of Mr. Host should be remembered and approved with as much fervor as if his logical contentions had not been ignored as the result of a legal quibble.

PUSH THE CARNIVAL.

The matter of the street carnival is still engrossing the attention of the merchant public. It should be pushed through with vigor. It is a valuable enterprise, one which will bring advertising for the city and money to its business people. Much of it will be outside money that will be left here, and that is the money that we are after most.

Incidentally, it has come to us that members of the Interstate Fair Association are aggrieved because The Tribune has, they believe, "knocked" the fair. We protest that we have been misinterpreted, and we take this opportunity to assure the association that what a public newspaper can do to assist this meritorious organization, The Tribune will gladly do. The proof of the pudding is in the eating. When fair time approaches, the fair managers are invited to use this paper as freely as if they owned it to herald the glad news. Truly The Tribune would be loath indeed to be suspected of unfriendliness to so valuable an enterprise as the La Crosse Interstate Fair.

But to presume that we cannot be friendly to the proposed carnival and to the fair at the same time is illogical. We are for both. This is no country town; it is a big city fit for big things and many of them. We cannot belittle the carnival for the sake of the fair any more than we can belittle the fair for the sake of the carnival. Let them be taken up in the order of their coming, and let them be handled with push and intelligence. Both will be successful.

CLAM SHELLS ARE TOO PLENTIFUL

The supply of clam shells on the market has overwhelmed the pearl button factories and the industry is decidedly calm. According to Superintendent Gerard of Dubuque the Iroquois plant on the levee from at Dubuque is only working at a little over half force.

"There is talk of the supply of shells dying out," said Mr. Gerard the other day, "but I hardly think it is so, as the yield so far has greatly exceeded the demand. In fact all along the river the factories complain of the poor demand for buttons and incidentally the slump in the shell business is noticed."

Clam diggers in this vicinity report a satisfactory supply of shells on hand. The talk of a dying industry appears to be all bosh. "As long as there is a demand for the shells," said a digger, "the market will be filled with them." On all sides it appears the shells have increased enormously, in fact, contrary to rumors, have been put to flight by the returns made by the clam seekers.

"I was down the river last week," continued Mr. Gerard, "and met with the managers of several large plants. All told the same story—too much yield and not enough demand. The indications are conditions will remain in their present state until the fall, when a general change is expected."

These rumors will bring out many men who have made their living by digging clams, but who will have nothing to do during the summer months.

The stage of water is satisfactory for clamming and the diggers are greatly disappointed. The slack demand does not mean, however, that no shells will be brought, but the amount will be cut considerably.

Madison—The 100th anniversary of the death of Schiller will be commemorated by appropriate exercises at the University of Wisconsin on May 9, in Assembly hall. WM. PLANKINTON HAS LEFT NO WILL MILWAUKEE, May 3.—No will has been found among the private papers of the late William Plankinton. Members of the family think that no will was made.

"Mr. Plankinton had expressed the belief that a will was unnecessary, except when it was desired to make some special gift. I have heard him say that he thought the law provided for the division of property very fairly," said Jeremiah Quinn, manager of the Plankinton estates, last night. "In case there is no will, the widow will get one-third of the revenues of the estates, and she will share equally with the children in other properties. I have not yet looked in his strong box for the will. It hardly seemed proper until after the funeral."

The funeral services, though marked by extreme simplicity, were notable for the large attendance of well-known Milwaukee people representing various organizations, business and social, with which Mr. Plankinton was connected. A telegram of condolence was received by the family from J. Ogden Armour, Chicago, and George H. Webster, P. D. Armour's former partner and a close personal friend of Mr. Plankinton, was in attendance. Flowers filled the great entrance hall of the residence at 1605 Grand avenue, armfuls of roses and white lilies being banded against the walls and around the family portraits, and completely hiding the casket, which stood against the east wall between the entrance door and the staircase. It was a state casket, heavily carved and covered with black broadcloth, copper lined with an inner lining of biscuit-tufted white silk. The handles and name plate were of ebony and oxidized silver, the name plate having merely "William Plankinton, 1844-1905." On the casket lay a great bunch of lilies of the valley, Mr. Plankinton's favorite flower, the gift of Jeremiah Quinn and Miss Elizabeth Lane, his stenographer.

The family, with G. H. Webster and Jeremiah Quinn and his family, were at the head of the stairs, and the other mourners filled the lower rooms of the house. The Rev. William Austin Smith, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, read the Episcopal burial service, which Mr. Plankinton had always admired for its extreme simplicity, though he was a pillar of the Calvary Presbyterian church. The elders of Calvary church were present in a body.

The Wisconsin Consistory quartet from the Arion club, composed of Prof. Daniel Protheroe, Wilmer Sieg, O. F. Bird and H. S. Hughes, sang several numbers, opening the service with "Nearer, My God, to Thee." After the service for the dead read by the Rev. Mr. Smith the choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and followed the Lord's prayer and prayer for the dead "The Christian's Good Night" was sung, and the benediction pronounced.

The interment at Forest Home cemetery was private, only the few near friends and relatives occupying the twenty-five carriages which followed the hearse attending. The Rev. William Austin Smith read the Episcopal committal service.

CROPS ARE SLOW BECAUSE OF WEATHER

Although the crop season opened about two weeks earlier than usual this year in Wisconsin and the Dakotas, one week of this start has already been lost because of the continued cold weather. This is the conclusion drawn in the summary of the reports of the crop conditions received from along the lines of the North-western railway in these states. This summary sent out today contains the following:

A careful investigation of the conditions in South Dakota through the country shows that the wheat is coming forward slowly but uniformly. It has not made rapid progress on account of the cold weather, and there has been lost to quite an extent the early season first promised.

Grass is also in about the same condition as wheat. At present it is about one week earlier than one year ago in South Dakota.

In spite of the continued cool weather there is nothing discouraging in the condition. In fact everything looks encouraging, for the grain already sown has a good strong root. All the small grain has been sown in this territory and the early wheat is up about two inches in height. It shows a good stand and color. A trip through the territory shows one fact in particular, and that is that good farming is general. Conditions in this respect are much improved over former years.

Joseph Manieczynski of Austria is the man from whom Krupski stole the fortune. Krupski bought a flour mill at Crivitz and a 500 acre farm near there, and ran them both until a year ago last October, when word was received that Krupski had stolen $20,000 from Manieczynski. Krupski suddenly disappeared and his whereabouts have never been discovered.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Pe-ru-na in the Home for Catarrhal Diseases.

MR. and MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, Independence, Mo.

Remarkable Cures Effected By Pe-ru-na.

Under date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter:

"My wife has been a sufferer from a complication of diseases for the past twenty-five years. Her case has baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. She was also passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life.

"In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of twenty-five years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me. Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more."

John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:

"I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. I am still cured of catarrh."

John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272.

Mrs. Alla Schwanndt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years. Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If I ever am affected with any kind of sickness Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."

—Mrs. Alla Schwanndt.

Why Old People are Especially Liable to Systemic Catarrh.

When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safeguard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that entirely meets these cases. Nothing but an effective systemic remedy can cure them.

Many occupants of the boxes sprang into the arena and men, women and children tumbled over one another in their mad rush to get out of the way. There were five thousand persons in the Garden at the time.

FORTY-THREE CASES FOR THE JURY AT PRESENT TERM

During the present term of circuit court forty-three cases will come up for trial by jury.

This was decided yesterday after the court calendar had been reviewed by the court. Almost every attorney in the city will be represented.

Out of the forty-three cases to be tried, fourteen are cases brought against the Chicago and Northwestern railway company by property owners along the La Crosse river, who claim damages because of the filling in of the bank of the river by the company thus changing its course and injuring their property.

The first case to come up is that of the West Concord Milling company vs. George A. Hoesmer and Louis Oehler.

The case is being argued today.

Kittell Files Charges Against District Attorney

GREEN BAY, Wis., May 3.—Special Assistant District Attorney S. P. Huntington has preferred charges of neglect of duty against District Attorney J. A. Kittell with Gov. La Follette, accompanied by the request that the district attorney be removed from office.

It is alleged that Mr. Kittell was opposed to calling the grand jury and is antagonistic to the prosecution of the graft cases.

This action of Mr. Huntington's follows closely upon the action of the county board of Brown county, which voted at its last session to have Judge S. D. Hastings remove Mr. Huntington from office on the ground that Mr. Kittell can prosecute the cases, and that the continuance of Mr. Huntington in office is an extra expense to the county.

BANQUET TO Y. M. C. A. STUDENTS A BIG SUCCESS

Secretary George H. Timmings Will Remain Here Until Arrival of his Successor

The banquet tendered the classes of the Y. M. C. A. last evening by the ladies of the various churches of the city, was an immense success, and the entertainment was one of the most enjoyable ever held at the association building.

Although Mr. Timmings, the former secretary, was understood to leave the Y. M. C. A. last evening to go west, he has decided and announced last evening that he will continue to hold his position as secretary until he is relieved by the entrance of the new secretary who has not yet arrived.

Dr. J. A. L. Bradfield acted as chairman and Mr. Charles H. Schweizer officiated as toastmaster. Mr. Schweizer presented Mr. Timmings on behalf of the members of the association with a large silver tray filled with 50 silver dollars.

Mr. Timmings responded with a very interesting talk wherein he explained his purpose in leaving the Y. M. C. A. and his appreciation of the treatment which has been accorded him by the members of the local association.

Mr. Timmings closed by introducing Mr. J. W. Stafford the proposed secretary, who made an interesting talk, speaking very highly of the work of the La Crosse association and association work in general.

The report of the president was read and adopted. It was announced that the buildings and equipments of the association here have become far too small and inadequate and it is time something was done to remedy this condition. Now that the association is out of debt it is an opportune time to consider improvements. This was the gist of the report.

The Y. M. C. A. quartette entertained with a number of selections during the evening and received several encores.

Mr. Stafford returned to his home at Springfield, Mass., last night. He has not yet decided whether he will accept the La Crosse call or not, but will respond by wire after giving the matter some thought.

The Clothes We Sell ARE WARRANTED PURE WOOL

THE unusual agitation on the subject of "adulteration in wool" leads us to say that we never offer anything that we do not absolutely KNOW to be pure, all wool. We do not see any occasion for dealing in shoddy cottons or mercerized materials. We have made our enviable reputation by handling high-class wools and we shall not, at any time, permit any deviation from this established rule. We want our friends to feel perfectly confident that when they buy any clothes from us, they will stand any and every test that science has devised.

For instance, the garment shown here is thoroughly all-wool and is so warranted by this store. It is the exact style good dressers are affecting this spring and is worth every cent we ask for it.

Will Make Paper From Sugar Cane

APPLETON, Wis., May 3.—Capital will soon be secured for the erection of a $150,000 paper mill to be built on the 6,000 acre tract of land owned by the Rio Tamaposo Sugar company of Mexico, one of those notorious Mexican companies, of which Dr. H. B. Tanner of Kaukauna is president, and of which a number of Appleton men are stockholders. Vigo Drewson of New York, an expert chemist, was engaged recently to make experiments with a view to determining the availability of bagasse in the manufacture of paper. His report is said to have proven eminently satisfactory and definite steps will soon be taken in the matter of selling bonds for the purpose of raising capital for the construction of the paper mill.

Athletics at the Uni- versity

MADISON, Wis., May 3.—The baseball game between Wisconsin and Notre Dame scheduled for Monday afternoon was called off on account of wet grounds. The next game is on Wednesday with Illinois. Contrary to expectations Wisconsin will not be represented in the track meet at Minneapolis next Saturday. It had been planned to send a mile relay team, but the expense is too great.

The interfraternity track meet and the home meet of the varsity track team will be held on Friday. A week from next Saturday Chicago will be here for a dual meet. No man who has ever competed for the varsity will be allowed in the interfrat contests.

SECURES RELICS OF JUNEAU

MILWAUKEE, May 3.—An interesting collection of the personal effects of the late Solomon Juneau, including a quaint walnut secretary, seventy-five years old, a huge iron key to Juneau's fur house, which formerly stood at the foot of Milwaukee street, and a battered old hymnal, used by Mr. Juneau when he sang in the choir of St. Peter's church, Jackson and Martin streets, has been made by Peter Van Vechten and presented to the Old Settlers' club. A report on the securing of these relics from the relatives of the late pioneer at Theresa and Mayville, was read by Mr. Van Vechten at a meeting of the club held last night in their rooms in the Loan and Trust building. An acknowledgment was made and a vote of thanks returned for the gift of a valuable cabinet by the heirs of the late Dr. I. A. Lapham. The election of Peter Barth, 251 Reed street, and Gerhardt J. Kommeier, 308 East North avenue, as members of the club, and the appointment by President G. W. Hazelton of J. F. Pierce, George W. Ogden, and R. C. Bradford as a committee on the memorial of the late William Plankinton, concluded the business of the session.

KING EDWARD HAS MANY FRIENDS IN PARIS

Paris, May 3.—King Edward has made thousands of new friends, among the ranks of former Anglophobes by his stay in this city during the present Moroccan crisis, as well as by his declaration that he wants henceforward to come to Paris incognito, on the same basis as King Leopold of Belgium and King George of Greece. The fact that the British king is discussing politics with Delesse and Loubet at the moment when the Moroccan question is still open between France and Germany is interpreted by the majority of the nation as meaning an entente or something more substantial than a mere diplomatic make-believe as it was generally considered till recently.

Discordant Note Is Uttered.

Nevertheless the voice of warning against "the false friend" makes itself heard in certain political circles, where it is pointed out that King Edward's arrival in Paris coincides with the raising of the British flag over Koweit. "This is more than a coincidence," said a former minister. "Months ago the foreign office was greatly apprehensive over the British encroachment in Arabia. Its perpetual advances in the Aden hinterland are threatening the authority of Sheik Said, over whom France has certain rights."

Says the Britishers Are "Schlimm."

"Russia, which would naturally object to the seizure of this important station on the road to India, as England objected when Germany wanted to make it a terminal of the Bagdad railway, has its hands tied by the war in the Far East, while King Edward is diverting the attention of the French government and making it impossible to take any action by his continued stay here. The moment he leaves French territory the matter will be brought to the attention of parliament. No sane person can fail to see through the British design."

Ex-Russian Minister Calls.

King Edward passed a quiet day driving about the city and visiting intimate friends. Among the calls made by him was one on Baron de Staal, the ex-Russian ambassador in London. The king also inspected the handsomely re-furnished British embassy and lunched with an old friend, the Marquis de Jaucourt.

COW GIRLS ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

MISS LUCILLE MULHALL AND ONE OF THE COWBOYS FROM THE MULHALL RANCH, IN CENTRAL PARK.

(New York Herald Special)
NEW YORK, May 3.—Colonel Zach Mulhall and the Western cowboys and cowgirls who are here to take part in the Horse Fair at Madison Square Garden, caused a stir in Central Park by riding up the East Drive and along the bridge paths in plainmen's garb. In the party were Colonel Mulhall and his four daughters, Bossie, Lucille, Georgie and Mildred; the Millard brothers, who have thirty thousand cattle on their "101 ranch" at Bliss, O. T.; Colonel W. F. Toups of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association, and a score of other noted ranchmen, cow runners, horse wranglers, ropers and broncho busters.

QUIET OF DESPERATION REIGNS IN RUSSIAN CITY

DEEPER VOLCANIC FIRES ARE BURNING AND MAY BURST FORTH

Sixty-two Were Killed in the Riots of Monday

Warsaw, May 3.—The May day death toll totals sixty-two, including ten persons who died in the hospitals during the night. Probably 200 were wounded. Crowds gathered at the Tenth district police station where thirty victims—men and women and three children—were awaiting identification. Some minor disturbances occurred in different sections of the city, but no casualties have yet been reported. All day long infantry and cavalry patrolled the streets, which were crowded with people who did not spare their criticism of what was generally termed unnecessary slaughter. The popular irritation could not be concealed.

Attempts at Revenge Expected.
The soldiers evidently were nervous, and outbreaks resulting in a repetition of Monday's terrible scenes were only averted by the evident desire of the authorities to prevent a clash, coupled with the fear inspired by the soldiers' bullets. The population is most bitter against the military, and the government officials expect many attempts at revenge upon the officers commanding the troops, all of whom are known. The Polish press is silent on the subject of Monday's happenings. The official Russian paper prints a short and entirely inaccurate report. The governor general of Warsaw is said to be greatly upset by the turn of affairs.

More Trouble Is Looked For.
The Nationalists have arranged the usual demonstrations for today, the 11th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution, and disturbances are highly probable. The workmen are in an ugly and uncertain mood. The workmen at all the facories have struck and great efforts are being made to bring about a general strike, but this is not likely to be successful. The people have not yet recovered from the exhaustion and losses resulting from the last strike.

Anti-Red Flag Order Ignored.
Reports conflict regarding the beginning of the encounter in Jerusalem street. According to the most generally accepted version the authorities had forbidden workmen marching in procession to carry red flags, but the workmen decided to ignore the order. When the procession reached Jerusalem street the police ordered the workmen to stop, but they refused to do so, and a police officer thereupon fired a revolver, giving a signal for the infantry to fire. It appears that in other cases the demonstrators were the aggressors, but that in this instance the soldiers fired first.

Seventy-Five Thousand on Strike.
The industrial population are deeply exasperated over the sanguinary results of Monday's encounters. The strikes inaugurated on a large scale here, at Lodz, and in other cities, are rapidly spreading, and 75,000 persons are on strike in Lodz. Cossacks are patrolling the streets of Warsaw by companies on account of the danger to smaller detachments.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

South Bend, Ind., May 3.—The body of James Turner, for whom searching parties have been looking ever since his disappearance from his home in this city a week ago, was found in the St. Joseph river. The first theory was that Turner had fallen into the river, but developments showed that a man had boarded an Indiana, Illinois and Iowa train for Kankakee, Ill., and the search was turned in that direction. Later a woman crossing the Jefferson street bridge saw a body floating over the dam and reported it to the authorities.

Ingenious Bug—Gee! Talk about your get rich quick schemes!—New York Evening Journal.

Mr. Growler—Are you aware, sir, that you deliberately placed your umbrella in my eye yesterday evening? The Captain—Did I? How beastly careless of me, to be sure. I wondered where it had got to. Would it be troubling you too much to let me have it back—aw?—Half Holiday.

ALFALFA BY IRRIGATION YELLOWSTONE VALLEY, MONTANA.

There are more than 60,000 acres of land watered by irrigation ditches and peculiarly adapted to the raising of alfalfa, for sale in the Yellowstone valley west of Billings, Mont.

The soil varies from gumbo to sandy loam, and alfalfa does well on all of it. The following figures show what alfalfa will do on irrigated, as compared with common hay on unirrigated, land.

One acre sown to alfalfa and irrigated, will produce 10,000 pounds of hay.

One acre in enclosed pasture, 500 pounds.

One acre of range averages 250 pounds. Or again:

One acre of irrigated alfalfa will feed one steer 400 days.

One acre of enclosed pasture will feed one steer 20 days.

One acre of average range will feed one steer 10 days.

Or putting it in the form of sheep, it will show as follows:

160 acres of irrigated alfalfa will maintain 1600 sheep one year.

160 acres of enclosed pasture will maintain 80 sheep one year.

And 160 acres of range will maintain 40 sheep one year.

THE GOSPEL WAGON

(New York Herald Special.)

NEW YORK, May 3.—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harrison, a couple nearing the seventies have started with a load of New Testaments and potato peelers to drive to San Francisco. Their journey will be made in the old canvas covered wagon that took them on a thirty-five hundred mile tour to Atlanta, Ga., and back last year. The potato peelers, which are put together in the Harrisons' home, in East 116th street, and finished on the road, are expected to pay part of the expenses of the journey. Mr. Harrison preaches the Gospel, but under no circumstances will he take up a collection from his audiences. The journey is made primarily for health

POTH PREFERS JAIL TO HOME WITH WIFE

Milwaukee, May 3.—Rather than go back to his wife and divide with her the money he received from a mortgage?

Mathias Poth grins and defies two court injunctions and says he would rather spend the rest of his days in the county jail than return home. Poth, who is wizened and 74, calmly philosophized in court yesterday while the court conferred with the attorneys interested in the divorce case. Judge Williams is in a dilemma as to how to dispose of the case. The court may send the stubborn old man to jail on an indefinite sentence.

Poth still declares he has no intention of disclosing what he has done with the $900 other than saying he spent $100 and gave the remaining $800 to a friend for safe keeping. He violated one court injunction, issued by Judge Halsey, in collecting the money from a mortgage and depositing it in the First National bank.

"When de roosh on den bank coom, den I git seeret and draw it out," and he grinned as he learned on his cane and addressed the court. "But I have the $500 in a safe place."

The hearing had been postponed because, as his attorney, F. C. Lorenz, explained, he was too ill to appear. Judge Williams conferred with his wife, who said she was willing to take the divorce without the money or to let him come back home if he would divide the money. The family squabble may be settled without necessitating Poth's incarceration.

Superior Squabble is Ended

SUPERIOR, Wis., May 3.—The Superior school squabble terminated yesterday when eight of the ten members of the board agreed that they would vote not to ask Superintendent Jackson to reconsider his announcement that he would not be a candidate for re-election, also that Principal James of the high school should be dropped at the end of the year. This action came after another day of the high school strike which resulted in the suspension of seven members today.

Teamsters Wife Sues for Divorce

MILWAUKEE, May 3.—Herman Nienow, president of a teamsters' union, is sued for divorce by Bertha Nienow, in papers filed yesterday.

The wife says that he spent all his money with other women and at stag parties. A woman whose husband is in the house of correction, a young girl and a policeman's daughter are mentioned as the chief competitors for her husband's affection.

Nienow boasted, she says, that every man has two women, and he told his friends that his wife was too dull for him, but he could not get rid of her. As teamster he received $15 a week, and since he had been president of the union he has made considerably more, she says, but he never gave her more than $2 or $3 a week. She says that he had deserted her for more than a year.

MILWAUKEE HORSE SHOW DECLARED OFF

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 3.—There will be no horse show in Milwaukee this year.

The executive board of the Milwaukee Horse Show association met in the Wisconsin National bank yesterday morning, and, after listening to the report of the promoter, Dr. C. De Garmo Gray, went into executive session and decided not to hold the show.

Col. G. G. Pabst, president of the association which gave a successful show two years ago, said after the meeting: "We decided not to give a show this year. The reason is that things are in a turmoil, and the people whom we could depend upon to support the show can not be counted on for enthusiasm or entries. That is all there is to say, in a nutshell."

Other directors at the meeting were L. J. Petit and Oliver C. Fuller. Dr. C. De Garmo Gray made a report, saying that the outlook for the show this year was very bright as far as interest among gentlemen exhibitors and professional horsemen went. He said he had visited many fashionable winter resorts in the sub-tropics last winter, and had enlisted the co-operation of men with good strings of show horses.

Have Marshals Shot Dietz?

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., May 3.—There is a vague report here tonight that John F. The report here is that a man, name unknown, who has been near Cameron dam, says he has heard on definite authority that Dietz had been killed.
